

TIME TO RECONSIDER 41 CLUB?

41 Club, also known as The Association of Ex-Round Tabler's Clubs, is calling all Ex-Round Table and 41 Club members in (TOWN) to come and take a look at their local 41 Club to see just what it has to offer.

The Club is opening its doors this month to entice former Round Tablers and 41 Club members to come along and see just what they've been missing out on.

The (TOWN) club meets at (LOCATION) on (DATE) to not only get together and socialise with other members, but to take part in exciting community and fundraising initiatives from quiz nights and national gala dinners to mountain trekking and high sea boat races.

This latest "Bring 'em Back" venture from 41 Club forms part of a nationwide initiative to encourage former Round Table members to get involved with the Association, renew friendships and forge new links with the local community.

"While 41 Club is going strong, we are aware that many do not go on to join us once they reach the end of their Round Table careers," says (name), Chairman, (group). "41 Club has evolved as an organisation and we are inviting these individuals to come and see for themselves what we can bring to the table, so to speak."

41 Club, established in 1945, has well over 18,000 members and over 820 groups nationwide. For more information please visit www.41club.org or contact (NAME OF CLUB) Chairman (NAME) on (TELEPHONE/EMAIL)

--ENDS--

About 41 Club

41 Club, also known as The Association of Ex-Round Tablers' Clubs, was established to provide an outlet for continued fun, fellowship and community work for businessmen once they reached 40 and had to leave the Round Table. It is comprised of 820 clubs across the UK and Ireland, all of whom meet for dinners, sporting activity and fundraising initiatives, to name a few. 41 Club and Round Table are a part of the worldwide Round Table Family of clubs representing some 80,000 members. Membership of 41 Club alone is 18,500 in the UK, with a further 22,000 in 39 other countries around the world.

For further information please contact:

Mira Taylor

0161 929 6570 / 07894 612 926

mira@avidpr.co.uk